

Oral History Basics Workshop
Brisbane
Saturday 27 November 2021, 10am – 4pm

Venue

12 Payne Street, Auchenflower, Brisbane.

Facilitator: Elisabeth Gondwe

Elisabeth is the current president of Oral History Queensland. She has a Master of Arts in Anthropology and Archaeology from James Cook University. Elisabeth has worked as an oral historian for the past 30 years and brings a strong oral history focus to her role as the curator at the North Stradbroke Island Museum on Minjerribah. Elisabeth has designed and delivered many community oral history projects. With her museum background, Elisabeth specialises in audio archiving, access and intellectual property protocols.

Participants

This is an introductory workshop and would suit people who are commencing an oral history project. It is appropriate for anyone with an interest in oral history, family and local histories. Participants should bring pens, paper and audio recorder if you have one, or a smartphone.

Costs

$100 members of Oral History Queensland, $120 non-members. Find details of how to become a member of OHQ here: <http://www.ohq.org.au/membership/>

Content

The workshop will introduce participants to the basics of collecting oral histories and delivering oral history projects. It will provide an overview of an oral history project, ethics and permissions, an introduction to interview techniques and recording, file management and transcribing.

Catering

Light refreshments will be provided.

Parking

Available at venue.

Bookings by 22 November 2021

Please secure your place by emailing info@ohq.org.au or telephoning Suzanne Mulligan on (07) 3376 1865 to register and to arrange payment. Numbers are limited and we encourage you to reserve early.

To become a member or to find out more about OHQ, visit our website: www.ohq.org.au or join us on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/ohaaqld/>