Hello Oral History Queensland members. Here is your sixth e-Bulletin for 2023. I hope this finds you well and enjoying the lovely sunny (but cool) winter days. Unfortunately, I don't have as much as I usually have for our e-Bulletin this month. Don't forget (as per next paragraph) – I would like to share with our members anything you would like to tell me about your projects so please email me about them. Also anything else you feel would interest other members.

If you have any information to share in our e-Bulletin, particularly the project you're working on, please email me at mulligan53@iinet.net.au and use OHQ E-Bulletin in the subject line. If you have an event coming up, let me know as soon as you can to ensure it gets in the e-Bulletin in time. The editor reserves the right not to publish if any information that is judged to be inappropriate. Please visit our website: www.ohq.org.au and “Like” our Facebook page. We try to put some interesting information related to oral history on our Facebook page as well as on our Blog, including posts related to COVID-19. Feel free to add a comment. All feedback is very welcome.

2. Gallery and Museum Achievement Awards – a reminder

Nominations are open for the 2023 Gallery and Museum Achievement Awards (GAMAA) which are presented by Museums & Galleries Queensland to honour the achievements of individuals and organisations in striving towards excellence. Find out more here. Nominations for the 2023 GAMAA close at 5:00 pm on Monday, 10 July 2023

3. Copyright

Learn about copyright with these fact sheets from the Australian Copyright Council including here Orphan Works - ACC - INFO101 - Australian Copyright Council, plus other fact sheets.

4. Research fellowship information event (in-person and online)

“Applications open 3 July for $130,000 of State Library research fellowship opportunities. Fellowships offer a unique opportunity for researchers and creatives of all kinds to immerse themselves in the library’s vast collections and bring to life new stories. If you’re interested in applying, come along to the information night and hear from a panel of past Fellows, judges and State Library staff. You’ll learn more about the program and how to kick start your application.” Find out more here.

5. Queensland Memory Awards

“State Library’s Queensland Memory Awards recognise the valuable contribution of individuals and organisations across Queensland in the investigation, preservation and celebration of Queensland’s memory — past and present.” Find out more here.

6. Renewal of Membership Due

Renewal of membership of Oral History Queensland are due on 1 July 2023. Treasurer, Helen Turner, has begun sending out invoices to those who are due to renew. Many thanks to those who have already paid. OHQ holds regular meetings, runs workshops, publishes monthly newsletters. We also provide a friendly and informative forum for those interested in oral history from any perspective. If you have any queries about your oral history project, please send an email to info@ohq.org.au.

7. OHQ Annual General Meeting and General Meeting, 26 August 2023

We plan to have the OHQ AGM at 10.00 am on Saturday, 26 August 2023. That will be immediately followed by our General Meeting. At this stage, we’re hoping for a face-to-face meeting together with a Zoom meeting. We will confirm the venue in early August. At the meeting, all Executive positions – President, Treasurer and Secretary are declared vacant before the election of the new Executive. Please consider joining our committee and send an email to info@ohq.org.au for more information.

Please note – we were to have our AGM & General Meeting on 19 August 2023, but we’ve postponed it to 26 August.

‘For any aspiring oral historian, the six R(s) are important – research, rapport, responsibility, reflection, restraint and respect – they shape oral history archiving.’ From article “Creating Memory” by Adity Choudhury <https://themeghalayan.com/curating-memory/>
